

To: The Officer In Charge
Vancouver, B.C.

From: Sergeant M. C. Racicot
"E" Division Internal Affairs Unit
North District
Prince George, B. C.

Re: Constable Justin Peter Harris
Reg # 44089
Code of Conduct Investigation - Part IV RCMP Act
Project "E" Prevails
Prince George, B. C.

Name of Complainant(s):

Implicated Employee:
Constable Justin Peter Harris
Reg # 44089

Vancouver, B. C.
(Formerly stationed at Prince George Detachment)

Background Information:

This investigation commenced as a result of information received in 2002, during the investigation into allegations made against Judge David Ramsay regarding his involvement with young prostitutes in Prince George, B. C. Judge Ramsay was a judge of the Provincial Court of British Columbia in Prince George at the time this took place. The information also indicated that past and present members of Prince George Detachment have or are using the services of local under age prostitutes. This information surfaced third hand by way of social workers who had been told this by their clients.

Investigation has resulted in the obtaining of statements from four different sex trade workers from Prince George who have stated that they have had sex in exchange for money with Cst. Harris while he was stationed to Prince George Detachment. These exchanges with Cst. Harris took place

The victims allege that they were between the ages of 14 and 17 when these exchanges took place. During one of these exchanges, physical force was applied to the victim. Constable Harris was physically stationed in Prince George from October 19th, 1993 to May 2001. On September 20, 2004, Constable Harris was suspended with pay by Inspector Edwards. He remains suspended from duty at this time.

Findings of the Investigation: